27th February 2020

Dear Parents/Carers

At Greenfield Primary School we believe that promoting health and wellbeing of our pupils is an important part of their overall education, we do this through our personal, social and health education (PSHE) and relationship, sex education (RSE) programme.

Starting in September 2020, there will be new Department of Education (DFE) Relationships Education and Health Education statutory requirements for schools. As a result of this we, as a school, have a new PSHE and RSE programme. We will be teaching through SCARF: safety, caring, achievement, resilience and friendship. This highly recommended programme will be taught from Nursery to Year 6.

School is currently teaching the PSHE part of this programme. Before we introduce the RSE statutory requirements we are providing a meeting for parents to look at and comment on our draft policy as well as look at our scheme in more detail.

The meeting will be on Monday 9th March at 5:00pm and will be addressed by three key members of staff:

EYFS - Nursery and Reception

Mrs Mubiru (EYFS Coordinator)

KS1 - Year 1 and Year 2

Miss Egan (Assistant Headteacher)

KS2 - Year 3 to Year 6

Mrs Juster (Deputy Headteacher)

Any questions or information can be shared during these sessions. If you would like to attend this meeting, which will cover all phases of education in primary schools, could you please sign the slip below and return to school to enable us to accommodate for the numbers. Children will not be allowed to attend this meeting. We anticipate the meeting will last for about one hour. You can gain information prior to the meeting via the link below:
