Dear parents and carers,

Greenfield Primary School will be joining thousands of schools across the UK and taking part in Hello Yellow in support of YoungMinds on Thursday 10th October (World Mental Health Day) where we'll be holding a non-school uniform day and asking everyone to wear something yellow.

There are days when all of us struggle with how we are feeling. Things can get tough, and it can be difficult knowing how to cope. For so many young people, when this happens, they don't always get the help they need, when they need it. They don't know where to turn, who to talk to, or even if anyone else feels the same. No young person should feel alone with their mental health. But together, we can change this. Because we stand brighter, together.

To take part, pupils can wear yellow to school, and we'd like to ask parents and carers to consider donating to help YoungMinds keep fighting for young people's mental health. Our suggested donation is £2 which can be donated on our JustGiving page: Greenfield Primary School's Page or brought into school on the day.

In partnership with M&S, Joe Whale, aka The Doodle Boy has designed an exclusive collection of products to support Hello Yellow. All the profits will be donated to Young Minds and anything purchased will be welcome to wear on Thursday 10th October.

Finally, YoungMinds have resources for parents and carers to find help and advice, if you're ever concerned about a child or young person – you can find this on their website: www.youngminds.org.uk/parent. If you have any questions, please let us know.

Kind regards,
Mrs Porter.
